Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

Holiday Activities and Food (HAF) Programme Eligibility Update

The DfE funded HAF Programme returns for the winter school holidays. Please be reminded of the changes to eligibility for the HAF Programme.
Only pupils in receipt of targeted free school meals are eligible for the HAF Programme. Pupils in receipt of extended free school meals are not eligible.

Library Assistants Needed

We are looking for enthusiastic library assistants to help keep our library organised and welcoming.

Responsibilities include maintaining and shelving books, keeping accurate records, reminding pupils to return overdue books, and contributing creative ideas to support library promotions, activities and events.

If your child is interested in the role, please visit Mr Devine in the Library for an application form.
Deadline Friday, 20th November

Vacancy: We are currently looking for a Sixth Form Admissions and Administrator. Details about the role can be found via this link: Role and job description

How pupils and students earn merits in lessons

How can i earn merits?

Concentration	We focus, listen, participate and apply ourselves to produce high-quality work.
Confidence	We challenge ourselves, share our ideas, develop our knowledge and skills, and take pride in our achievements.
Calmness	We manage our emotions, respond positively to feedback and persevere to improve our learning.
Courtesy	We are polite, respectful and kind in the way we speak and act.
Consideration	We think about others, work together, take responsibility and make positive contributions.
